Prepare 1 cup of quinoa or farro according to directions, then set aside. Preheat oven to 410°F and line two baking sheets with parchment paper.

In a large bowl mix carrots, sweet potato, and broccoli with ¼ cup of olive oil until coated. Then spread out the vegetables on one of the baking sheets.

Mix the chickpeas with about two tablespoons of olive oil and a pinch of salt. Then spread out the chickpeas on the other baking sheet.

Put both sheets in the oven for 20 minutes. Flip vegetables and chickpeas with a spatula after 10 minutes, then return to oven. Remove from oven when done.

Place cooked farrow or quinoa in the bottom of a large shallow bowl or container. Mix in your preferred brain-boosting spices: turmeric, cumin, cinnamon, or ginger. Add kale or spinach on top. Add roasted vegetables and chickpeas on top of greens. Top it off with sliced almonds or pumpkin seeds.

Enjoy your Super Bowl!
